2020

The background of the image is a solid light beige color. Scattered around the edges, particularly on the left and bottom, are various pieces of chocolate candy. Some are square-shaped with a smooth, dark brown coating and a single, lighter-colored, round candy in the center. Others are broken, irregular pieces showing a lighter, possibly caramel or nougat, interior. The text "Looking for something NEW?" is centered horizontally. "Looking for something" is in a white, elegant script font, underlined. "NEW?" is in a bold, red, sans-serif font, also underlined.
